I expect to prove that the British minister, and a member of the Senate and House of Representamember of the Senate and House of Representa-tives, had consultations in private in relation to the Oregon question, by the editor of the Newark Dai-ly Advertiser; and I wish to have him summoned to bring his file for February, and any letters he re-ceived from his reporter of the House or Senate dur-ing that month, confidential or otherwise. JESSE E. DOW.

Mr. H. H. Robinson made the following statement in writing, to wit:

I expect to prove by the testimony of Col. Samuel Medary, and Mr. L. C. Turner, of Onio, that they have knowledge of a dinner or entertainment having been given by the British minister, at which certain United States senators were present, and on which occasion the Oregon question was the sub 2d interrogatory. Do you know, or were you informed, how Mr. Pakenham came to the Capitol on the day you have named, whether in his own carriage or in a private or public hack?

Answer by witness. I do not.

3d interrogatory. Did you ever say to Jease E. Dow that you saw Mr. Pakenham, the British minister come to the Capitol in a private head at a head.

British minister about the Oregon question?

Answer by witness. I do not know that any of the senators, or Mr. Pakenham, had a conversation on the Oregon question or any other question. I only know the British minister by sight, and a very few of the senators; I therefore answer the question in the negative. I stated to Mr. Dow the British government pursued three methods of gaining their points: one was by diplomacy; another, by their gold; the third, war. That the British minister had been brought up in a good school in Mexico, and that he had the example of a Jugurtha in bribing the Roman senate. I also stated, from my knowledge of the English character, I believe they thought us as base as themselves.

In, and is foreign from the publications, I verbally informed the committee that he told me he had heard it form a person whose name he was not at liberty to use, and such should have been my statement in writing at the time.

This correction, due to myself, to Mr. Schnabel, and your committee, as well as to Mr. Clayton, I now desire to make at this stage of the proceedings; and I have therefore to request and most respectfully insist that this copy shall be made a matter of record.

At this time, Mr. H. H. Robinson appeared be ore the committee, and asked permiss draw the written statement made by him on yesterday, as to what he expected to prove by Mr. Schnabel. It will be observed this was after said witness

I expect to prove by Mr. Jarnagin that he was present at a caucus of the whig members, at which the Oregon discussion was of such a character that he became diagusted and left before the adjournment.

I expect to prove by Judge Atchison, of the Senate, that Mr. Jarnagin told bim that he was present at the above specified caucus, and left for the reasons stated.

Answer by witness. In a conversation with Mr. Jesse E. Dow, I told him that I had heard from one of the messengers of the Senate that there was a meeting of some of the senators at the Capitol. I also stated that I met Mr. Pakenham in the rotunda on that morning. Not knowing of my own knowledge that a meeting had taken place, I could not have stated as the question propounds. Answer by witness. The information upon which I relied was derived from others, and from circumstances that transpired previous to my making the statements; but I know nothing of my own personal knowledge upon which the extract alluded to was based.

reither before or after the publication of their articles. The first time I ever spoke to Dow was the day after his first article, at which time I was introduced to him by Mr. Upton of this city. Robinson, the editor, I never saw to know him until to-day, and since my examination was commenced before this honorable committee. I was introduced to him a few moments since by Mr. Dow.

6th interrogatory. Can you give the committee. I was few moments of any persons who can prove upon any senator the matters contained in the extract of your letter to the Missouri Republican?

Answer by witness. I cannot do so without a breach of confidence. I based the statement upon certain statements made to me by a third person, and which, in my opinion, justified my writing the letter I did. I cannot, therefore, give the name. Thi interrogatory. Do you, or do you not, refuse to give the name of any person for your authority in alluding to senators in the language used in your letter to the Missouri Republican?

Answer by witness: I do refuse for the reason above stated, and for no other reason whatever.

Here the committee closed the examination of this witness, and he refused to sign his deposition, because the committee would not permit him to relate his hearsay of facts and circumstances commu-

this witness, and he retused to sage his deposition, because the committee would not permit him to relate his hearsay of facts and circumstances communicated to him by other persons, whose names he would not give; which hearsay of facts and circumstances, he said, in his opinion, fully justified the letter he had written to the Missouri Republication.

Mr. Ellis B. Schnabel, who had been examined as a witness on yesterday, asked permission to make an addition to his former statement, which was permitted; and he made the following, to wit: I never told Mr. Robinson that I knew a man the day you have named, whether in his own cariage or in a private or public hack?

Answer by witness. I do not.

3d interrogatory. Did you ever say to Jease E. Dow that you saw Mr. Pakenham, the British minister, come to the Capitol in a private hack, at about the British minister come to the Capitol in a hack or private carriage; but I said to Mr. Dow it was my impression that the British minister must have gone to the Capitol, but a hack instead.

4th interrogatory. In the conversation you had with Jesse E. Dow, did you say or intimate to him that there had been any consultation or correspondience between the senators, or any of them, and the British minister about the Oregon question?

Answer by witness. I do not to the Capitol in a hack or impression that there had been any consultation or correspondience between the senators, or any of them, and the British minister about the Oregon question?

Answer by witness. I do not know that I saw the British minister or must have gone to the Capitol in a hack or impression that there had been any consultation or correspondience between the senators, or any of them, and the British minister about the Oregon question. I mend the British minister was a sa witness on yesterday morning, and desired the privilege in and the final privilege of making the proper correction. I did not intend to be understood as specifying Mr. Schnabel as a private hack, as I do not know the make at the publications which this call of inquiry is predicated on. I intended to specify the rumor of there having been an entertsimment at which the strength of the party was said to have been assume that there had been any consultation or corresponding the proper to correction. I d Medary and Turner as his proof, not me; that he did not know me until long after the publication in the Timea, which rendered it impossible that I could have been his source of information. He made a literal retraction of his statements regarding myself, and said that he would make the correction before the committee. I had made an arrangement, or rather concluded to leave for Philadelphia on the evening I met these gentlemen at Mr. Parrish's room; but subsequent circumstances induced me to make another disposition of my intention, and remain a week longer. I cannot say that Mr. Robinson had knowledge of my intention to leave Washington, although a gentleman present had made inquiry of me whether I would go, and at what time. I then Answer by witness. I think it was on the day I first appeared before the committee.

The interregatory. Was your conversation with Lieutenant Porter of the navy, in relation to the supposed meeting in the Capitol, before or after the publication in the Times in relation to that meeting. Answer by witness. My conversation with Lieutenant Porter was after I had accertained from Dr. Relfe the substance of his statement; and after the publication. My conversation with Dr. Relfe was the day after the first article appeared; and that conversation I immediately reported to Mr. Robinson, Br. Relfe was the first person who gave me he information.

Samuel Medary, a witness heretofore examined, was called back, and on his further examination deposed as follows—to wit:

principle, and its outsiness is restricted by the charter to the insurance of lives, and granting annuities and endowments.

It commenced, without capital, on the lat of February, 1843. At the close of its second year, (31st January, 1845.) it had issued 1,086 policies, and its net accumulated premiums was $97,278. At the termination of the third year, on the 31st January, 1846, the whole number of policies issued was 2,133, and its net accumulated premiums, after paying all losses and expenses, was $915,571; thus exhibiting an increase during the last year of 1,047 policies issued, and $118,278 of accumulated funds, which is rapidly augmenting by an annual income of $250,000, growing out of original and renewed premiums and interest on investments.

This extraordinary success places the company in a strong position, and it now ranks among the safest insututions in the country.

Policy-holders participate in the whole of the profits, there being no proprietary interest or subscribed earlied.

Policy-holders participate in the whole of the profits, there being no proprietary interest or subscribed capital to absorb any portion thereof. Anextensive and presperous business promises large dividends on the first division of profits on the 1st of February, 1848, and persons now insuring will share in these profits if they survive that period.

The premiums are paid annually, and are as low as any American company, and lower than the English, with a participation in the profits. Policy holders are secured by investments in bonds and mortgages on real estate in the city of New York and Brooklyn, worth double the amount loaned thereon, and in stocks of the State and city of New York.
